“ Before we started out, we made a list of all our heroes and favourite people we wanted to work with...
...but what we completely underestimated was how amazing all the people who aren't famous are ”
(Duncan Bridgeman on the making of the '1 Giant Leap film' - Palm Pictures 2003)

'Youth in Motion' is a project inviting young people from all communities, religious and ethnic backgrounds, in Northern Ireland, to create new music with assistance from professional musicians representing different countries. Through improvised music sessions participants will get a chance to express their ideas to form compositions to produce a professional recording. Area programs will take place in various locations throughout Northern Ireland.
